

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of this organization shall be elected by a majority vote of the membership, either in a regular meeting called for this purpose or by mailed ballot, for a term of two years or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Section 3. President. The President shall, in general, supervise and conduct the activities and operations of the organization. He or she shall keep the Board of Directors fully informed and shall freely consult with them concerning the activities of the organization. He or she shall serve on the Board of Directors; shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the membership of the organization or shall delegate a chairperson; shall be a member ex officio, with the right to vote, of all committees; and shall perform such other duties as are necessarily incident to the office of the President and as shall from time to time be assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Vice-President. The Vice President shall serve on the Board of Directors and shall have such powers and duties as may be assigned to him or her by the President or the Board of Directors. In the case of the absence of the President, or of his or her inability from any cause to act, the Vice-President shall in general, perform the duties of the President.

Section 5. Secretary. The Secretary shall serve on the Board of Directors and shall take minutes of all meetings; give notice of and attend all meetings of the organization; conduct all correspondence; and carry into execution all orders, votes and resolutions not otherwise assigned. The Secretary shall notify the officers and directors of the organization of their election. The Secretary shall at all reasonable times exhibit the corporate records to any officer or director of the organization. At the expiration of his or her term of office, he or she shall deliver over to the successor all records, or, in the absence of a Secretary elect, to the President. In the case of the absence or disability of the Secretary, the Board of Directors may appoint a secretary pro tem.

Section 6. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall serve on the Board of Directors and shall keep the membership records of the organization. The Treasurer shall prepare under the direction of the Board of Directors an annual report of the transactions and condition of the organization. The Treasurer shall have custody of all funds of the organization which may come into his or her hands. S/he shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements, collect all fees, annual dues or subscriptions, and shall deposit all monies and other valuable effects of the organization in the name and to the credit of the organization in such banks or depositories as the Board of Directors may designate. Funds may be drawn only upon the signature of the any two members of the Board of Directors. Whenever required by the Board of Directors, he or she shall render a statement of his or her accounts. The Treasurer shall at all reasonable times exhibit the corporate books and accounts to any officer or Director of the organization. At the expiration of his or her term of office, he or she shall deliver over to the successor all books, monies and other properties, or, in the absence of a Treasurer elect, to the